A MARKER FOR EVERY MILE

Down here in the Keys, the Overseas Highway is like our Main Street. And the best way to get around is to know the mile marker of your destination. These little green signs that dot our highway every mile begin just south of Florida City with number 127 and run all the way down to zero in Key West. They're like our addresses. If you know the mile marker of where you're going, getting there is easy.

THE TEN KEYMANDMENTS

- Don't anchor on a reef.
(Reefs are alive. A-L-I-V-E.)
- Don't feed the animals.
(They'll want to follow you home. And you can't keep them.)
- Don't trash our place.
(Or we'll send Bubba to trash yours.)
- Don't collect conch.
(This species is protected. By Bubba.)
- Don't disturb the bird nests.
(They find it very annoying.)
- Don't touch the coral.
(After all, you don't even know them.)
- Don't speed.
(Especially on Big Pine Key, where Key deer reside, and tar-and-leathering is still practiced.)
- Don't catch more fish than you can eat.
(Better yet, let them go. Some of them support schools.)
- Don't damage the sea grass.
(And don't even think about making a skirt out of it.)
- Don't drink and drive.
(There's absolutely nothing funny about it.)
